Team,

Here is where our six funds landed for the week ending August 7, with benchmark comparisons, notable movements, and changes from last week.

Headlines vs. Benchmark

Three of the five valued funds beat their benchmarks, one matched, and one trailed. Global Equity led the week, finishing 1.11 points ahead. Across all funds, client activity produced a net outflow of $5.5M.

Fund	This Week	Benchmark	vs. Benchmark	YTD	Net Flow
Multi-Asset Fund	0.38%	0.35%	+0.03	6.84%	-$14.9M
Global Equity Fund	1.42%	0.31%	+1.11	11.22%	+$5.85M
Core Fixed Income Fund	-0.12%	-0.10%	-0.02	3.18%	+$0.6M
Diversified Alternatives Fund	0.21%	0.18%	+0.03	4.02%	+$0.75M
Short-Term Reserves Fund	0.09%	0.09%	0.00	2.61%	+$2.2M
Private Markets Access Fund	0.00%	0.00%	Not valued	5.90%	$0
All funds					-$5.5M

vs. Benchmark = fund return minus benchmark return, in percentage points.

Notable Movements

- Global Equity beat its benchmark by 1.11 points (1.42% vs. 0.31%), up from a 0.02-point lead last week.
- Harborview Children's Trust redeemed $18.5M from Multi-Asset, driving that fund's $14.9M net outflow.
- Lakeshore University Endowment contributed $6.75M to Global Equity.
- Core Fixed Income slipped to -0.12% after a 0.05% gain last week, trailing its benchmark by 0.02 points.
- Private Markets Access shows 0.00% because it had no interim valuation this week, not because it was flat.

What Changed vs. Last Week

Global Equity drove the biggest shift, with its weekly return up 1.07 points from last week. Multi-Asset and Diversified Alternatives improved modestly, while Core Fixed Income turned negative.

Fund	Last Week	This Week	Change	vs. Bmk Last	vs. Bmk This
